SEMINAR - Free Event

20th January 2010

The Crossing at St Paul's,
Darwell Street, Walsall, WS1 1DA

Pathways to social and job inclusion for people with disabilities

West Midlands
Regional Assembly

Overview

This seminar is targeting those from a public / third sector who seek to promote social inclusion for people with disabilities.

If you are passionate about developing services for, and with disabled people this seminar is for you!

You will learn about current and future trends, as well as have an opportunity to share your experiences with practitioners in workshops on:

- The use of social firms in supporting those with disabilities
- Mental health and depression
- Myth busting and awareness raising

This event is the final in a series of six thematic seminars being run for those who work in the field of combating social exclusion. It provides a unique opportunity to have your views heard and to influence policy.
